December 2007

The first of our winter midweek lunch meetings was a trip out to the Land's End pub by the river near Woodley. A good crowd turned up on a nice bright sunny day. A roomy pub with good food and a selection of beers. A handy pub for the Twyford vineyard to get some English wine for Christmas.

We entered a team in the Chiltern section's December quiz. It was a very difficult quiz but somehow we managed to come away without disgracing ourselves, coming fourth out of eleven teams. All in all a good year for our team winning three out of the five quizzes that we entered.

Unfortunately the Christmas Dinner was not as well attended as previous years but the people that came had a very good time. The meal at The Jekyl and Hyde was excellent and unhurried, giving us plenty of time to circulate.

The extra night at Englefield produced a good motley crowd, the members bringing plenty of nibbles to get us in the mood for Christmas. It was nice to see so many partners at Englefield.

I wish you all a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year
